

There are four kinds of people in the world.

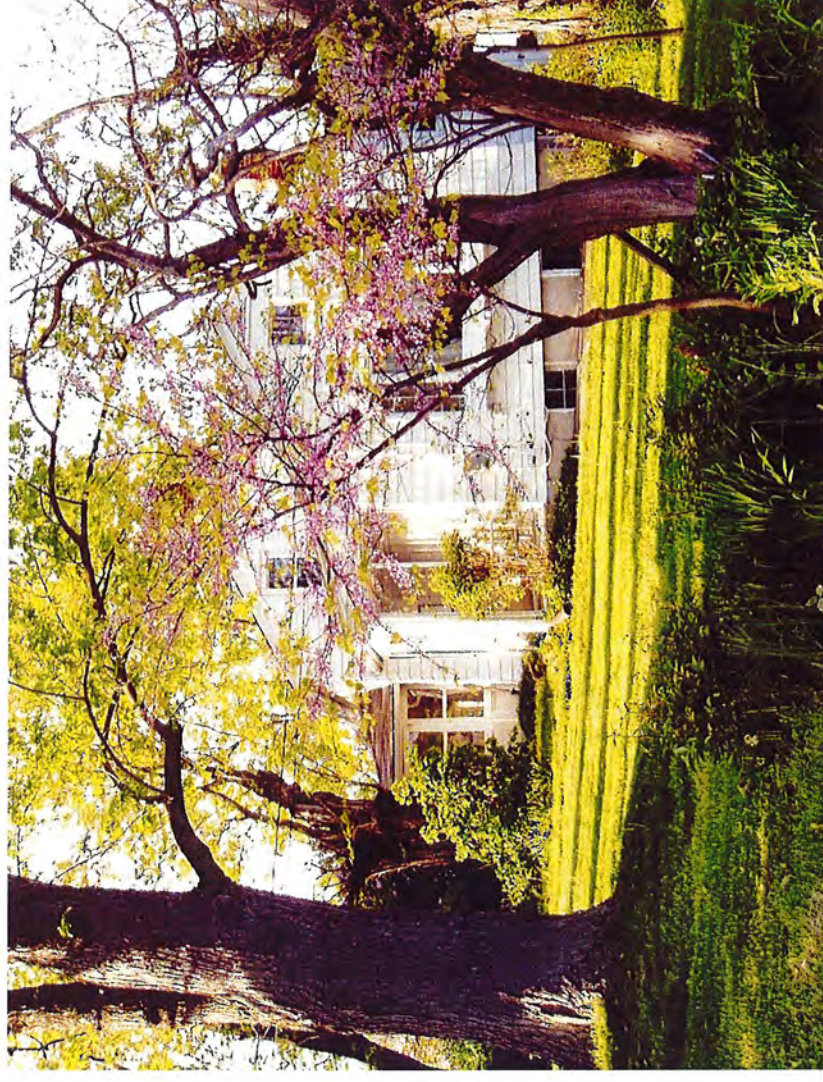

Those who have been Caregivers.

Those who are currently Caregivers.

Those who will be Caregivers

and those who will need Caregivers."

According to a 2013 AARP New York State survey:

- 14.1 % of the population of our State is age 65 or older and that number is rapidly rising
- 4.1 million people in New York State are unpaid informal Caregivers
- The long term care that those informal Caregivers provide is actually valued at $32 billion dollars

These Caregivers are most concerned about:

- (84%) taking care of their own personal health
 - (83%) not having enough respite care
- (68%) using their own money to provide care
 - (77%) not meeting monthly financial needs
